

Black & Gold

G A L A

Georgette Rashid George

Georgette Rashid George is a successful second-generation West Virginia entrepreneur. After leaving West Virginia for college and working for Hewlett Packard in technical sales and management for about 10 years, George returned to the Charleston area to work in the family business in 1991.

George is the CEO and an Executive Team Member of Monarch Holdings, LLC, which includes business enterprises involving retail, office and hotel development. She has served on the boards of numerous non-profit organizations, including the Thomas Hospital Foundation, Community Council of Kanawha Valley, The Greater Kanawha Valley Foundation and the Convention Bureaus of the cities of both Charleston and South Charleston. She currently serves as a director of the West Virginia Regional Tech Park, Summit Financial Group, Inc./Summit Community Bank, and the Clay Center Foundation. She is also a member of the Federal Reserve West Virginia Advisory Committee for the Fifth District. George was a recipient of the Women of Achievement Award from the YWCA of Charleston.

George is a graduate of Vanderbilt University where she earned a bachelor's degree in biomedical and electrical engineering.